

Artists' Salary Fund

Application evaluation scale
Version; June 2024

Applications in the Artists' Salary Fund* are evaluated according to the following scale. Points are awarded on a scale of 0 - 10. Zero points indicate that the minimum requirements are not met.

(*salary funds for designers, visual artists, writers, performing artists, musical performers and composers)

Criteria	%	10. points	5. points	1. point
1 Work/project(s) in application; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• is interesting</li> <li>• is well defined</li> <li>• has artistic value</li> </ul> (page 2.1 Work description)	50%	Projects/work that form the basis of the application are very interesting, well defined and of great artistic value	Projects/work that form the basis of the application meet at least two conditions well.	Projects/work that form the basis of an application do not meet any criteria well.
2 Career <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Work and studies. Brief description in application and complete CV as attachment.</li> <li>• Awards/Acknowledgements</li> <li>• Works shown, performed or published publicly</li> <li>• The artist is breaking through on the art scene with an interesting application.</li> </ul> (Pages 1.2, 2.1, 3.1)	30%	The artist has received recognition and their work has been exhibited, performed or published many times OR the artist is breaking through on the scene with an outstandingly interesting application.	The artist has regularly exhibited, performed or published their work in the past years OR the artist is breaking through with an interesting application.	Artist's work has rarely been exhibited, performed or published OR artist's application is of little interest.
3 Work/Project plan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Well defined</li> <li>• Plausible/Convincing</li> <li>• Goals are likely to be achieved</li> </ul> (page 2.1 Project plan)	20%	Work/Project plan is well defined, convincing and likely that set goals will be achieved.	Work/Project plan is not sufficiently defined but set goals might be achieved.	Work/Project plan is insufficiently defined and set goals are not likely to be met.